

Romeo and Juliet, 120×170cm, 2009

At the same time, I also made "Romeo and Juliet", shooting two models dressed in Dior dresses, presenting a well-known romantic love story. One black girl acts out Juliet standing inside a cave cell while another white girl acts out Romeo coming to meet each other. This scene in this photograph is idyllic, and was shot in Da Vinci's museum in a small town 2 hours outside Paris.
